

R4S Presentations – ICFP 2022

November 14-17, 2022

Pattaya City, Thailand

Pattaya Exhibition and Convention Hall (PEACH)

[Pre-conference and Day 1: No R4S presentations]

• Day 2: Tuesday, November 15

Time	Presentation Type and Title	Presenter Name	Presenter Institution	Presentation Location
10:15-11:35am	Oral: “Using a mixed-method inductive approach to operationalize measurement of self-care in family planning”	Aurelie Brunie	FHI 360	PEACH Pattaya 4
10:15-11:35am	Oral: “So Many Tools; How to Choose?”	Sarah Brittingham	FHI 360	PEACH Pattaya 11
11:50am-1:10pm	Oral flash: “Learning to protect family planning during future crises: A prospective longitudinal study on women’s experiences with family planning access and use during COVID-19 in Malawi, Nepal, Niger, and Uganda”	Dinah Amongin	Makerere University School of Public Health	Grand Hotel Orchid Ballroom A
12:30-2:30pm	Poster: “Advancing the Family Planning Equity Agenda: Lessons from Uganda”	Sarah Nabukeera	Makerere University School of Public Health	PEACH Pre-function Area
12:30-2:30pm	Poster: “Monitoring service delivery High Impact Practices (HIPs): Results from a partner mapping and indicator inventory in five countries”	Susan Pietrzyk	ICF (work funded by the Data for Impact Project)	PEACH Pre-function Area
2:40-4:00pm	Oral flash: “Evaluating the cost-effectiveness of approaches to reach youth with modern contraceptives in Mozambique: A structured approach to costing routine health programs involving multiple implementers”	Marcos Chissano	Population Services International	Beach Hotel Royal Summit Chamber A

2:40-4:00pm	Oral flash: “Assessment of FP-HIV integration within self-care oriented antiretroviral therapy differentiated service delivery models in eastern and central Uganda”	Joseph Matovu	Makerere University School of Public Health	Beach Hotel Royal Summit Chamber A
2:40-4:00pm	Oral flash: “Interests and Preferences Regarding Family Planning Self-care Interventions among Kenyan and Nigerian Women”	Funmilola OlaOlorun	EVIHDAF	Beach Hotel Royal Summit Chamber A
2:40-4:00pm	Oral flash: “Equity in demand for family planning satisfied and teenage childbearing: Differences across three equity dimensions across 5 African countries”	Fredrick Makumbi	Makerere University School of Public Health	Grand Hotel Orchid Ballroom A
3:30-5:30pm	Poster: “‘Africans we know how to adapt indeed’: Adaptations to the delivery of family planning and reproductive health services in two Nigerian humanitarian settings during the COVID 19 pandemic”	Emily Evens	FHI 360	PEACH Pre-function Area
3:30-5:30pm	Poster: “Developing a replicable approach to measure the scale, reach, quality, and cost of service delivery for family planning within High Impact Practices”	Sarah Nabukeera	Makerere University School of Public Health	PEACH Pre-function Area
3:30-5:30pm	Poster: “Thematic analysis and mapping of reproductive empowerment scales: a tool for family planning self-care programming and research”	Trinity Zan	FHI 360	PEACH Pre-function Area
7:00-8:45pm	Side Event: “Equity in FP Networking Event”	Trinity Zan (coordinating with partners)	FHI 360	PEACH Pattaya 5

- Day 3: Wednesday, November 16

Time	Presentation Type and Title	Presenter Name	Presenter Institution	Presentation Location
10:00am-12:00pm	Poster: “Applying evidence-based ASRH practices for youth and adolescents in real life: Opportunities gaps and challenges in Nepal”	Sangita Khatri	Save The Children	PEACH Pre-function Area
11:50am-1:10pm	Oral: “The Impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the use of selected family planning and reproductive health services in Uganda”	Emily Evens	FHI 360	PEACH Pattaya 6
11:50am-1:10pm	Oral: “Cross-sectional assessment of a digital client-facing family planning chatbot in Côte d’Ivoire: Lessons learned and opportunities for continued improvement”	Kristen Little	Population Services International	PEACH Pattaya 18
2:40-4:00pm	Oral: “Evaluating the impact of askNivi a digital health intervention on modern contraceptive method uptake in India”	Ben Bellows	Nivi, Inc.	Grand Hotel Jomtien 2
2:40-4:00pm	Oral: “Will a digital approach to healthcare provider training work for new FP method introduction in Nigeria? Results from a mixed methods study”	Anthony Adindu Nwala	Society for Family Health Nigeria	Grand Hotel Jomtien 2
4:15-5:35pm	Oral: “Understanding the self-care interests, preferences, and opportunities for adolescent girls and young women in Nepal”	Sangita Khatri	Save The Children	PEACH Pattaya 3
4:15-5:35pm	Oral: “An exploratory mixed-method study of family planning self-care in Nepal, Niger, and Uganda”	Dieudonne Bidashimwa	FHI 360	PEACH Pattaya 3

- Day 4: Thursday, November 17

Time	Presentation Type and Title	Presenter Name	Presenter Institution	Presentation Location
10:15-11:35am	Oral flash: “A Global Research and Learning Agenda for Building Evidence on Contraceptive-Induced Menstrual Changes for Research Product Development Policies and Programs”	Funmilola OlaOlorun	EVIHDAF	Beach Hotel Royal Summit Chamber A
11:50am-1:10pm	Panel: “Research and Learning Agendas for Family Planning: What have different stakeholders learned?”	Issoufa Harou; Emeka Nwachukwu; Trinity Zan; Sarah Nabukeera	DPF Niger; USAID; FHI 360; Makerere University School of Public Health	PEACH Pattaya 11
11:50am-1:10pm	Panel: “Digital Adaptations to Serve Consumer Family Planning Needs During COVID-19”	Andrea Novella	Population Services International	PEACH Pattaya 15